Over the half term holiday, I made a model about my visit to the Roman Baths. I can tell you how the baths were used and talk about the different parts. I made people out of Fimo and signs to teach other people about the baths.