

Bath Record Office – copying service

Bath Record Office: Archives and Local Studies is able to supply single copies for non-commercial research and private study only as per s.29 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988.

Archives staff are authorised to make scanned copies or photographic copies under s.42A and s.43. There are stipulations regarding the amount that can be scanned or photographed, the use of copyright declarations and conditions of supply.

When you request a scan or photograph, you will be asked to confirm that you acknowledge a copyright declaration which states that:

- You have not already been supplied with a copy of the same material
- You will use the copy only for non-commercial research or private study
- You will not supply the copy to another person or produce additional printed or electronic copies.
- [For published works] To the best of your knowledge no other person with whom you work or study has made or intends to make, at or about the same time as this request, a request for substantially the same material for substantially the same purpose.
- [For unpublished works] To the best of your knowledge the work has not been published before the document was deposited in the archive and the copyright owner has not prohibited copying of the work.

Copying policy

We reserve the right to refuse the copying of certain material due to its size or condition or in accordance with Data Protection legislation.

Some material cannot be scanned and instead must be photographed. We shall inform you of this in our initial response to your request. Requests for copies in other formats or of higher quality may be requested but may be subject to a separate charge.

Supply of images

Images will be supplied by e-mail or file-share websites (currently Secure Share). We do not supply images on portable media such as CD, DVD or USB drive. Images will be scanned at 300 dpi or photographed using a digital camera.
